Alf Lizzio's Model

Reference: Lizzio, A. (2006). Designing an orientation and transition strategy for commencing students: Applying the five senses model. Griffith University: First Year Experience Project.

Are you currently building connections?

Are you accessing on campus resources?

Do you understand your rights and responsibilities as members of an inclusive, engaged learning community?

Tentanda Via:

The way must be tried.

Are you clear about your sense of purpose?

How does your current program of study relate to the following:

- Personal interests
- Passions
- Life aspirations
- Career Goals

Do you feel have the tools and techniques to be successful?
